Railway Mail Service

A Conference of Division Superintendents.

DONE FOR THE PUBLIC INTEREST.

The object of the meeting is to increase the efficiency of the Railway Mail Service throughout the country—Various Other Dispatches Telegraphed from the National Capital.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—A general conference of the division superintendents and superintendents of mails in the railway mail service was held at the postoffice department yesterday. The meeting will continue during the week, and its object is a general interchange of views among those present with a view to increasing the efficiency of the railway mail service throughout the country, and also in view of the fact that the fall schedules of railroads will soon be made to arrange closer connections at mail centers.

R. C. Jackson, superintendent of the second division, was made chairman. After General Superintendent Bell, of the railway mail service, had delivered an address, giving a general outline of the subjects to which the conference was to be devoted, Mr. Bell invited all the members to make any suggestions they desired. Not since Superintendent Thompson's time eight years ago has there been a general conference like that now in session.

The following superintendents of mails were present: First division, W. H. Bigelow, of Boston; second, R. C. Jackson, of New York; fourth, L. M. Carroll, of Atlanta; fifth, Almona Bart, of Cincinnati; sixth, James E. White, of Chicago; seventh, J. P. Lindsay, of St. Louis; eighth, James L. Wilder, of San Francisco; ninth, George W. Pepper, Jr., of Cleveland; tenth, Wm. W. Perkins, of St. Paul; eleventh, J. S. Weaver, of Portland, Me.

Removing the Indians. WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—The war department is not disposed to take any steps in the matter of removing the band of Apaches from Mount Vernon barracks, Ala. Secretary Proctor said this morning that there is no mandatory statute providing for the confinement of Indians at some government barracks; there is no better place where they now are. The Indian Affairs association has made a proposition to purchase a large tract of land in North Carolina, where the Indians, under Government, may live in peace. Secretary Proctor will not take any definite steps in the matter of removal until he sees the purchase consummated, and it is evident from this and from the other views he holds that he believes the members of the band very well treated where they are.

Venezuela Commissioners. WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—Hon. John Little, of Ohio, and Senator Jose Andrade, of Venezuela, the commissioners of the Venezuelan national claim commission, qualified at the state department this morning. They organized informally, and selected Samuel P. Phillips, a prominent lawyer of this city, as the third member of the commission. The government of Venezuela and this government will be informed that the commission is ready for business. Attorney General Miller was present at the organization.

Samuel P. Phillips, qualified as a member of the Venezuelan mixed claims commission today. The commission will begin its meetings when suitable quarters have been prepared.

Free Entry of a Locomotive. WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—The treasury department has received a letter from Mr. Cons Miller, of New York city, in which he requests to be allowed free entry on a locomotive brought from Antwerp by Mr. Urban, a weaver, for the purpose of exhibiting to manufacturers of lace curtains; the arrangement patented by him for weaving chenille and other large cords.

The department has refused to grant the request as the provision of the law exempting the loans of trade to persons arriving in the United States from payment of duty expressly excepts "machinery or other articles imported for use in any manufacturing establishment."

Claims Authorized. WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—The secretary of war has authorized an expenditure of $1,000 for completing the plumbing and sewer system at Fort Reno, Idaho. He has also authorized an expenditure of $2,000 for the purchase of officers' quarters at Fort Monroe, Va.; $1,000 for work shops at Fort McPherson, Ga.; $30,000 for two brick buildings at Fort Hamilton, N. Y., and $500 for reconstructing a building at Willett's Point, New York.

Trying a Criminal. WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—The official trial of the cruiser Baltimore will take place on Tuesday next at Philadelphia. The comptroller of the currency has authorized the first National bank of Uruguay, Colombia, and the first National bank of Colombia, to begin business with capital of $50,000 each.

He Will Not Be There. WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—Secretary Tracy will not be able to attend the Selecting a Jury.

But Little Progress Made in the Cronin Cases.

NONE ADDED TO THE NUMBER.

Decision of the Judge on the Questions to Be Asked Jurors—Three Rejected on Account of a Cloud Hanging Over Their Own Heads.

CHICAGO, Sept. 4.—The Cronin murder trial was resumed in the branch of the criminal court at 10 o'clock yesterday morning. With reference to the questions that the defense propose to have submitted to each juror, the argument which occupied most of the day, Judge McConnell said: "I have examined these questions, and I have come to the conclusion that some of them are involved in the one in the other, and that some of them are improper. It is a matter purely discretionary with the court. I should like to ask the state why these questions may not be asked."

First. "Have you formed the opinion as to whether Dr. Cronin was taken to the Carlson cottage by the horse and buggy engaged by Dr. Cronin?"

Second. "Have you formed an opinion as to whether or not the prisoner, Martin Burke, was one of the tenants of the Carlson cottage?"

Third. "Have you formed an opinion as to whether the Chin-na-chai society was responsible for the death of Dr. Cronin?"

Discussion finally settled that these three questions would be the only ones asked of jurors who have read the newspaper reports. All the defendants saved an exception, but this was contested by Mr. Ugham, who said that the defense ought to ask the question and then take the exception. "There might arise conditions," said he, "when we might not object."

Judge McConnell finally permitted the addition of these two questions: "Have you formed an opinion as to whether the death of Dr. Cronin was a conspiracy?" and "Have you formed an opinion as to whether any of these defendants was a member of the said conspiracy?"

Up to 2 o'clock, when court adjourned for dinner, twelve of the special venire were examined. Eight of them were examined for cause; two, Luther Johnson and Barney Hoffman, were accepted temporarily, and two promissory challenged in behalf of Goughlin. The agreed questions were put to jurors Lillibridge, Letting and Begley. They answered them satisfactorily. Goughlin, Lillibridge and Letting were promissory challenged in behalf of Goughlin. This leaves but three men accepted temporarily. The defense has used eight promissory challenges.

At the afternoon session of court in the Cronin suspects' trial, the defense tendered four jurors to the state. Of these Begley and Johnson were promissory challenged by the state. Freeman (Gross, of Englewood, and T. P. Kellogg, the remaining two, had not been passed by the state when court adjourned.

TREASURES OF MONTEZUMA.

A Descendant of the Aztec Emperor Digging for His Ancestor's Gold.

New York, Sept. 4.—A City of Mexico special says: Extensive excavations are being made at the suburban town of Coyocuan, at a place lying on the outskirts of the wilderness known as the Pedregal, or Stony Ground, which in former years was noted as a haunt of brigands, and is even now considered as a resort for dangerous characters when pursued by the officers of justice. The object of the excavations, which are being made by private associations, is, if possible, to recover treasures of gold and silver supposed to be hidden there by Emperor Montezuma at the time of the Spanish conquest.

Senor Mercado, one of the party engaged in this work, is a lineal descendant of the last Aztec emperor, Cuauhtemoc, whose statue adorns the principal promenade of this city. Senor Mercado says that he has in his possession hieroglyphic documents which convince him that it was in the Pedregal that Montezuma hid his treasures, among other things a huge golden sun. A few weeks ago a valuable black pearl was found and also an emerald near some skeletons discovered in a subterranean passage.

Your correspondent has visited the excavations, and they are certainly remarkable, having already disclosed a subterranean staircase, winding passages and vaults, pavilions and skeletons, destitute of task or teeth, thus, according to Senor Mercado, proving beyond question that the Indians there buried were pure Aztecs.

He estimates the value of the buried treasure at not less than $20,000,000, but says that others engaged in the work of hunting the treasure put it at $50,000,000. The foremost archaeologists here are of the opinion that something may be found, and they agree with Senor Mercado that the intrinsic value of the things buried by Montezuma is surpassed by their historic importance. It has been held by some that Montezuma hid his treasures in the Lake Texcoco, and much has been done there in the way of dredging, but nothing has been found. Senor Mercado, the great native archaeologist, is interested in this search, and people high in authority are said to be lending their aid.

Healy Dies.

Urbair, Cal., Sept. 4.—An incendiary fire was started in the Palace hotel yesterday, destroying it, together with the Wells-Fargo express office, the Western Union Telegraph office, Reed's theater and the Old Fellows hall. The loss will be very heavy.

Relief For Strikers

How It Has Affected John Burns' Power.

THE LONDON STRIKE STILL ON.

Sympathy for the Strikers Growing Stronger and Contributions Flowing in Freely—No Immediate Prospect of a Settlement—Other Dispatches from Abroad.

LONDON, Sept. 4.—John Burns, the leader of the London strikers, has made himself as completely the master of the lives and fortunes of the men as any eastern despot over his subjects. For some days past the more unruly of his hungry followers were disposed to rebel against his pronounced purpose to preserve order at all hazards, and these, growing more numerous as food became scarcer, were a constant menace to his authority.

Yesterday, however, this source of danger was largely reduced, for Burns has succeeded in securing sufficient funds to supply his relief depots fairly well, and as he keeps a sharp lookout on the purse strings, and perpetually forbids any relief being given to such as question his authority, he is now every where implicitly obeyed.

The refusal of the dock companies to permit the vessel owners to make such terms with the laborers as they see fit for unloading their own ships, were materially improved the strikers' position, as it places the entire responsibility for the existing food shortage upon the shoulders of the dock managers. This intensifies the feeling in the commercial community against them, and as a result sympathy for the strikers grows stronger and contributions flow unceasingly into their coffers.

After the proposal of the shippers and vessel owners, to engage their own help, had been rejected by the dock managers, the latter applied to the strikers' committee to permit the men to load and unload at Southampton, such vessels as could be sent there from London; offering to carry the men out and back and to pay them the six pence per hour, which they demand. This proposition Burns rejected.

He says that if once the pressure upon commoners which the strike has brought about, as to great a sacrifice in relief without securing the concessions which the men demand, then it is possibly to all hopes for the success of the strike. He will not only prevent the London laborers from going to Southampton, but will forbid the strikers to attempt to send vessels to that point to be loaded and discharged by men there, he will follow the ships and organize a strike in Southampton.

The Importing Trade society has voted $200 to the strikers' fund. The German Socialist organ, Der Arbeiter, has declared that the manifesto of the strikers' committee, which was published in the London Standard, was a masterpiece of London to inaugurate a general strike, was telegraphed to the Volks-Tribune, the Socialist organ of Berlin, two days before it was issued in London, showing the close relations between the present strike and the Socialist movement.

The belief is gaining ground that the great strike will be settled no later than Thursday, when the directors of the dock companies are expected to concede the strikers' demands. Charles Morgan, the chairman of the directors, has yesterday evening sent a telegram to the strikers' committee requesting an appointment for a conference. This action is believed to foreshadow an agreement between the companies and the strikers.

Flood Damages.

VIENNA, Sept. 4.—The city of Segedina, which suffered so greatly by the disastrous flood of 1879, is threatened with another inundation. It is reported that the protective quays built immediately after the flood of that year, when the town was destroyed, are now crumbling. Floods are reported from all portions of the mountain district about Segedina and many lives have been lost.

Parnell Not Among Them.

LONDON, Sept. 4.—The Freeman's Journal, which claims to have thoroughly informed itself as to the position of the Irish party on the proposed Catholic university scheme, predicts that when that measure is actually brought into the house of commons at the next session Mr. Parnell will not be found among its supporters.

William O'Brien Seriously Ill.

DUBLIN, Sept. 4.—Mr. William O'Brien, who was removed yesterday to Galway jail, is seriously ill. He requested the aid of his own physician, which was refused, and the prison doctor was given charge of him. The prison officials telegraphed to the prison board that his condition is critical.

Socialistic Documents Seized.

LONDON, Sept. 4.—The leading Socialists of Hamburg were favored yesterday by visits at their residences by the police, who carried off all the documents, accounts and other compromising literature they could lay their hands on. The seizures were not accompanied by arrests.

Mrs. Maybrick's Children Adopted.

LONDON, Sept. 4.—The children of Mrs. Maybrick have been adopted by a wealthy couple residing in London, the consent of Mrs. Maybrick and that of the relatives of her husband having been obtained. The children will assume the name of their foster parents.

Boiler Explosion.

LONDON, Sept. 4.—A boiler explosion at a mill in Munster, Westphalia, yesterday, killed the owner, his wife, his mother and his foreman, besides two employees.

A TEMPERANCE MOVEMENT.

None but Temperance Republicans Will Be Supported in Massachusetts.

Boston, Sept. 4.—About one hundred gentlemen reported to the call issued by Henry H. Savon for a meeting yesterday, the purpose being as stated in the call to support none but temperance Republicans in the approaching campaign, and to oppose the candidacy of J. B. A. Brackett, lieutenant governor, for any official position. It was an exclusive conference, with all the formality of a political party convention, and only those who had delegate's credentials were admitted.

Hon. Frederick Postick was elected temporary chairman, and Rev. J. B. Gould, temporary secretary, and the temporary organization was made permanent with the addition of H. H. Faxon, Rev. D. O. Means, of Worcester; Hon. George P. Ladd, Hon. A. C. Hall, of Northampton, as vice presidents. A number of resolutions, outlining the policy of the meeting, were submitted and referred to the committee on resolutions. Addresses were made by Chairman Postick and Messrs. Faxon and Means.

Hon. B. B. Johnson then made a speech, during which he said: "Our platform sets out the following points: First, the necessity of speedy organization on the part of temperance Republicans; second, that the principle of prohibition is good policy; third, that the Republican party is in danger of surrendering to the corrupting influence of the liquor traffic; fourth, that the state officers should be earnest temperance workers, with positive temperance records; fifth, that the cause of the demand for more jails should be destroyed; sixth, that the liquor traffic doubles our taxes; seventh, that the governor should show to the people the 'Reus comping' taxation; eighth, that it is our duty to organize in moral and political work for prohibition."

Rev. J. B. Gould, of Newton, moved that the names of President E. H. Copen, of Tufts college; Hon. Rufus A. Frost, of Boston, and Hon. W. H. Hale, of Springfield, be presented to the Republican convention as specially acceptable to this convention as nominees for governor and lieutenant governor. A recess was here taken.

PAUL GROTTKAU AGAIN.

The Old-Fire, His Speeches Seem to Have Substantiated.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 3.—Paul Grottkau's speech at Milwaukee yesterday, Monday, was temperate with discretion. His opening sentences showed something of the old-time fire, and gave promise of a spirited harangue, but the promise was not fulfilled. Noticing that the press lobbies were unoccupied, Grottkau launched sarcastically on the vacancy, ending with the inference that an omission was on account of the workingmen there assembled, who were evidently of not enough importance to have their proceedings reported. Continuing, he said that they, with their brothers all over the country, had not to ask for a labor day of eight hours. This was now denied, but what the workingmen asked for now would soon be demanded. Past actions had taught that what was asked for was finally taken. Grottkau closed with a prophecy that in future years those who had freed the white slaves would be honored as much as were the members of the Grand Army, who had relieved the blacks from bondage.

Ohio Democratic Organization.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 4.—The Democratic state executive committee met here yesterday, and organized with Hon. James E. Neal, of Hamilton, as chairman, and John A. Sarber, of this city, as treasurer. At 9 o'clock p. m. the various Democratic clubs surrounded Hon. James E. Campbell, the candidate for governor, in a cordial meeting which was held at the city hotel. Lawrence T. Neal, of Chillicothe, O., as president, who spoke, and was followed by Mr. Campbell, Hon. Allen W. Thurman, Hon. George L. Converse, Hon. J. A. Norton and others.

Newspaper Enterprises.

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 4.—Two new daily newspapers put in an appearance this week in this city. The Grip, a lively local paper, issued its first number yesterday. It has had a successful weekly, and is devoted to the interest of the West Side. The Daily Sun makes its first bow this afternoon. The Sunday Sun has long been known as the best weekly paper in the state, and the daily edition starts off in good shape as a Republican paper, and with full wire reports.

Labor Convention.

DES MOINES, Iowa, Sept. 4.—The Union Labor state convention convened in this city at 7:30 yesterday with eighteen delegates present. After electing a permanent organization and listening to a lengthy address by Col. Jesse Harper, of Illinois, the convention adjourned until 8 o'clock to-morrow morning, when a full state ticket will be nominated.

Held as Witnesses.

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—Mrs. Swinton and Joshua Mann have been arrested and looked up by the police of this city. The charge against them is that they are suspicious persons. It is supposed, however, that they are being detained as witnesses in the Hamilton-Donnelly stabbing case at Atlantic City.

Boys on a Strike.

BREMLER, O., Sept. 4.—Thirty-five carrying and supporting boys are out on a strike at the Bellaire bottle works. The cause assigned is the loss of back of five cents of wages. Over 150 employees are out of work.

Price Fighter Committed to Jail.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Sept. 4.—George Rush, the California pugilist, arrested at Lawrence for engaging in a prize fight, was committed to jail here in default of bail.

WRATHFUL GEORGIANS

Take Preliminary Steps to Settle a Little Difference on the Field of Honor.

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 4.—The duelling circle has struck Georgia hard. The bloodless affray of a few days ago has turned the heads of the boys, and new two members of the legislature stand around in hotel corridors glowering at each other, while it is vaguely hinted that their friends are conducting blood-curdling correspondence in their names.

The principal figures in this case are Bill Huff and Pat Patterson, who devote their time to representing Bibb county in the legislature. Marion is the capital city of Bibb county, and all this was grown out of some local legislation. Huff said that the trouble was due to Patterson's holding on to those bills, the insinuation being that the gentle Patterson's grip had been tighter than he necessarily required. Patterson responds in a Marion newspaper and calls Huff a liar. That ended the newspaper war.

Both gentlemen came to Atlanta and here they called in their seconds. Mr. Huff called for Walter Welch, a young man who has figured in the same capacity in several affairs of this kind, when Mr. Patterson called for Tom Cobb Jackson, the hero of a bloodless duel with Morris Brandon last November, and son of Capt. Henry Jackson, who seconded Pat. Callahan when he met John Williamson on the Atlanta Railroad.

A demand was made for retraction and this was refused. That is the status of the affair so far as is now known, but developments are anxiously awaited. A dozen Atlanta reporters have their grips packed ready and anxious to go to the scene upon the slightest indication of warfare.

THE NAGLE HABEAS CORPUS CASE.

Argument to Show That He Was Justified in Shooting Judge Terry.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 4.—The habeas corpus proceedings in the case of Deputy United States Marshal Nagle were begun yesterday. The testimony was taken showing that Terry had threatened to kill Justice Field. It was also testified that Mr. and Mrs. Terry were violent persons, and had threatened to burn Judge Sawyer as well as to kill Justice Field, and that Terry had told Marshal Frank that he would get even with Field for deciding against him.

The facts of the case upon Judge Sawyer in a railroad car a year ago by Mrs. Terry were also given. The woman pulled the judge's hair, while Terry sat opposite, ready to take action if Sawyer should resist the action. It was shown that Terry had been in a hotel, and had received a letter signed by Miss Mary McLaughlin of this city, in which she expressed a desire to go over the falls in the same way.

Meeting of Stationary Engineers.

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 4.—The National Association of Stationary Engineers opened its annual convention here yesterday. About 150 stationary engineers, representing nearly every state in the union, were present. A committee on credentials was appointed, and a recess was then taken until the afternoon. The association has assembled all through the United States and has a membership of about 12,000.

The Fall of the Louisiana Election.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 4.—Telegrams from various points in the third congressional district indicate the election of Andrew Frank, Democrat, by a great majority over H. C. Minor, Republican. The plan of Franklin, in which a Republican deputy sheriff was shot and seriously wounded, is the only disturbance so far reported.

At Bishop's Reunion's Communion.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 4.—Archbishop Riordan, referring to the report published yesterday to the effect that his health was so feeble that he would require a committal, denies the statement and says he has been rather poorly of late but is now convalescing and able to attend to all his duties unaided.

Minor Events and Little Happenings at Various Places. Bankrupt liquidations are holding a National convention at Minneapolis. The Republicans of Highland county, O., nominated E. H. Miller for representative. Rev. David H. Moore, D. D., has been chosen editor of The Western Christian Advocate to succeed the late Dr. Bayless. Mrs. Matilda Hall committed suicide in Cincinnati yesterday by drowning herself in a stream.

James E. Neal has been selected chairman of the Democratic state executive committee.

Mrs. George Grooms died at Little San dusky, O., of what the doctors pronounced Asiatic cholera.

E. T. Jeffrey has resigned as manager of the Illinois Central railroad.

Frank Shaw attempted to light the natural gas under the boiler at the gas well at Mt. Vernon, O. He was seriously burned about the head and neck by the explosion that followed.

Mrs. Swinton and her son, Joshua A. Mann, have been arrested in New York, charged with participating in a conspiracy with Mrs. Hamilton, who stabbed her nurse at Atlantic City some time ago, by which Mrs. Hamilton brought a baby for $10, and succeeded in prevailing on Robert Ray Hamilton to marry her, he being persuaded that the infant was his child.

Patrons Beware. DIME PAGE, M.D., Sept. 4.—The president has denied pardons to Tom, God, sentenced in the Northern district of Mississippi, for selling liquor without license, and Thomas Sheldon, of Montana, was given a ten years' sentence in 1885, for mail robbery. God's request did not go before the president until his sentence had expired.

The Beef Monopoly's Extinction. CHICAGO, Sept. 4.—The senatorial committee appointed to investigate the dressed beef question has discovered that although the price of beef cattle has fallen off 100 per cent the past two years the price to the consumer in the name of the railroad, too, offer better rates for dressed beef.

PRICES CURRENT.

Review of the Money, Stock and Cattle Quotations for Sept. 3.

NEW YORK—Money at 2 1/2 per cent. Currency notes, 115 bid; gold coupons, 125; four-months, 105; six-months, 100. The stock market opened with a spirit this morning and the activity was attended with great strength. Prices advanced rapidly in the early dealing. The first quotations were generally 1/2 to 3/4 per cent. higher than those on Saturday for the general list, while Northern Pacific preferred, and Delaware and Hudson were exceptionally strong and advanced 1/2 and 1 per cent. respectively. During the first hour prices further advanced, and by 11 o'clock values were 1/4 to 1/2 per cent. above the closing figures of yesterday. In the hour to noon the market was extremely quiet, and for the most part it retained its strong tone and at this writing the highest figures of the morning are current.
